PROGRAM LENGTH

One-Year Ontario College Post-Graduate Certificate

HIGHLIGHTS

- The demand for human resources management professionals continues to rise as business becomes more competitive and legislative changes become more complex
- In just two semesters students are prepared for dynamic opportunities working as an HR generalist or specialist, or as a private consultant
- Field placement provides valuable industry contacts and practical HR experience
- All courses are approved by the Human Resources Professionals Association (HRPA) for credit toward nationally recognized designation as a Certified Human Resources Professional (CHRP)

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

- Graduates find positions working in business, government, and not-for-profit organizations
- You'll be prepared for a career as an HR manager, HR development officer, planning analyst, training coordinator, Human Resources Information System (HRIS) specialist, payroll coordinator or health and safety officer

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

- Successful business is all about people management. Human resource management professionals help guide organizations with sound practices – hiring the right people, training personnel to be effective, and developing strategies to motivate individuals and teams
- Students gain the knowledge and skills to meet a wide range of current business challenges in just two semesters
- Teaching combines all the functional areas of human resource management with opportunities to apply HR theory in a practical setting, resulting in a meaningful professional practice
