PROGRAM LENGTH

Two-Year Ontario College Diploma
September and January Entry

HIGHLIGHTS

- Train for an intellectually and physically challenging profession in policing
- Loyalist's program teaches to the most rigorous standards used in the hiring process, preparing graduates to place among the top tier of applicants in this competitive field
- Our faculty members have experience at all levels of policing – municipal, provincial and federal
- Students get valuable field or field-related experience in two separate placements
- After a common first year in Justice Studies, students have the flexibility to transfer to Year Two of Community and Justice Services; Protection, Security and Investigation; or Customs Border Services

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

- There are exciting career opportunities with municipal and regional police services, Ontario Provincial Police (OPP), military police, RCMP and related law enforcement agencies
- Before police recruits can be hired in Ontario, applicants must undergo provincial aptitude testing. Components include physical fitness, visual acuity, psychological and written examinations, as well as a police background check
- The Loyalist Police Foundations program specifically prepares graduates for both Physical Readiness Evaluation for Police (PREP) testing and the Ontario Association of Chiefs of Police (OACP) Certificate required by most police services. Recruits attend post-hire training at the Ontario Police College
