

Loyalist College Summer Arts, 2004

Take a look at what Loyalist College Summer Arts has to offer you – a wide variety of classes and a choice of unique settings.

Classes are offered in carving, miniature furniture, rug hooking, watercolour, oils, acrylics, mixed-media, drawing, sketching, basketry, photography, paper making, landscapes, portraiture, figure drawing, writing, music, blacksmithing, soapmaking, felting, and pottery.

LOYALIST COLLEGE, Belleville – enjoy the comfort of workshops in air-conditioned classrooms, with convenient residence accommodation

AMHERST ISLAND – an inspirational haven for both day students and students staying at The Lodge

BRIDGEWATER RETREAT, near Tweed – rich in natural beauty and artistic history; a retreat for residential students

PRINCE EDWARD COUNTY

- Ameliasburgh Museum – a unique classroom within a museum complex
- Lake on the Mountain Resort – a mystical setting for both day students and students staying in cottages at the Resort
- Sandbanks Park – Artist in the Park fall classes in one of nature's wonders

The Summer Arts 2004 brochure, with a complete listing of classes and descriptions, is available at local libraries; at www.loyalistfocus.com; by contacting scampbel@loyalistic.on.ca; or by calling (613) 969-1913, ext. 2467 or 2260.

Please note: If you were a Loyalist Summer Arts student in 2003, you will automatically receive a brochure.

