

Summer Arts 2003

The much-anticipated Loyalist College Summer Arts workshops are here!
Now they can be enjoyed at even more picturesque locations:

Loyalist College, Belleville – with air-conditioned classrooms and spacious residence accommodations

Amherst Island – New location for day students and students staying at The Lodge

Bridgewater Retreat, near Tweed – a Summer Arts staple for residential classes

Prince Edward County – Ameliasburgh Museum, as well as two new locations:

Lake on the Mountain Resort – for both day students and students staying at The Resort

Sandbanks Park – Artist in the Park fall classes

Summer Arts classes offer carving, rug hooking, water colour, oils, acrylics, multi-media, basketry, photography, paper making, landscapes, portraiture, figure drawing, blacksmithing, quilting, archaeology, writing and vintage engines, to name a few.

The 2003 brochures, with full listings of classes and descriptions, are available at local libraries and through local art organizations. You can also find complete Summer Arts information at the Loyalist College web site:
