

A Winning Combination.

You and the Print Journalism Program at Loyalist College.

Join this award-winning program and follow in the footsteps of our talented and successful Print Journalism graduates. Your opportunities are endless.

This year alone, Loyalist was presented with four awards at the Ontario Community Newspaper Association's (OCNA) Annual Awards Ceremony:

- The Loyalist Pioneer newspaper won first place in the General Excellence category
- The College's Online Pioneer newspaper (www.thepioneer.com) won first place in the College/University Online Edition category
- Andy Johnson, a graduate of the College's Print Journalism program, received second place in the Student Photography category
- Brent Foster, who graduated from the Photojournalism program, received third place in the Student Photography category.
