

Your Loyalist College experience includes Learning Transitions

Learning Transitions can help you:

- Create a balanced, manageable work load
- Develop effective study skills to help you be successful
- Confirm your career and program goals
- Access other college services
- Examine program choices – for now and the future
- Adjust to the challenge of balancing college life, family and job demands

Learning Transitions is always your study partner

Other helpful student success resources include:

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| • Aboriginal Resources Centre.....1H13        | • Health Centre .....1H7                    |
| • Academic Skills Centre .....3N1             | • Library – The Parrott Centre              |
| • Admissions .....2H1                         | • Peer Tutoring .....2H1                    |
| • Computer Assisted Learning Centre .....2H9C | • S.O.A.R. .... 2L20                        |
| • Employment/Career Services .....1H16        | (Student Office for Alternative Resources)  |
| • Financial Assistance .....2H1               | • Options for Success: See Student Handbook |

Your faculty and program co-ordinator are always there to help.

Professional counselling services are available to all students at no cost through the Student Services Office 1H16 ext. 2244

- Individual or group counselling
- Advice and help in dealing with a crisis
- Access to Loyalist College Food Bank
- Learning skills and test taking tools
- Educational, career and personal concerns
- College and community referrals
- Help with depression and anxiety
- Time management

LEARNING TRANSITIONS Room 1L7

Hours: Monday–Friday 10:00 am–4:00 pm
Drop in or call 969-1913, ext. 2105 for an appointment
E-mail: learning@loyalistc.on.ca
Mary Jane Green or David Beer

