

New This Fall at Loyalist College

Apprenticeship, Co-op

Diploma for Cooks

The foodservice industry is one of the largest and most dynamic in Canada. Starting this September Loyalist College will be offering an Apprenticeship, Co-op, Diploma (two year) program for Cooks - designed to meet the needs of an expanding and changing industry.

As registered apprentices, students will study full time from September to April. This will be followed by a paid co-op placement from May to August. Students will then complete the second year of the program on a part-time basis over the next four years.

Graduates will receive a Culinary Management Diploma and will have satisfied all in-class requirements for their Certificate of Qualification (Inter-Provincial Red Seal).
