

Loyalist College is Open to All Ontario College Students

Loyalist College would like to extend its services to all Ontario College students who are residing in the Belleville area during the current faculty strike.

If you are a student from another college who has returned home during the strike, we encourage you to take advantage of our facilities and services in order to continue with your studies, assignments and projects. We invite you to access our:

- Library
- Student Centre
- Fitness Centre
- Computer Labs
- Classroom Space
- Cafeteria

Visiting students are asked to bring their student identification card in order to access College resources.

For further information please call (613) 969-1913 and contact the information centre at extension 2000.
