

Loyalist College

Summer Arts 2007

An enticing selection of topics, instructors and settings.

Classes are offered in carving, willow furniture, chair caning, miniature furniture, rug hooking, spinning, watercolour, oils, acrylics, mixed-media, drawing, sketching, photography, paper making, print making, landscapes, portraiture, figure drawing, writing, music, and pottery.

Nurture your muse with renowned, skilled instructors, in inspirational settings:

- A comfortable lodge on an island, with gourmet dining
- The historic Ameliasburgh Museum complex
- Plein air sites in scenic Prince Edward County
- Loyalist College, with air-conditioned classrooms and residences

The Summer Arts 2007 brochure, with a complete listing of classes and descriptions, is available at local libraries; at www.loyalistfocus.com; by contacting scampbel@loyalistic.on.ca; or by calling (613) 969-1913, ext. 2467 or 2260.

Please Note: If you were a Loyalist Summer Arts student in 2006, you will automatically receive a brochure.