

What do North America's top broadcasters and industry manufacturers have in common?

They're waiting to hire you.

Congratulations on your offer of admission to Loyalist's Broadcast Engineering Technology program. To help give you a sense of what lies ahead, we invite you to join us on Wednesday April 27. You'll have the opportunity to tour our facilities, meet our faculty and students – and talk with the experts in the field – representatives from Applied Electronics, CTV, Evertz, High Fidelity, Rogers Sportnet, Ross Video, Whistlestop Productions... They'll confirm that you made the right decision in choosing Loyalist.

WHEN: Wednesday April 27, 11:30 to 2:00

WHERE: Loyalist College, Wallbridge-Loyalist Road, Belleville

Lunch is on us.

Please RSVP by April 21 to xxx@loyalistc.on.ca

Looking forward to meeting you on the 27th,

Eric Heidendahl

Coordinator, Broadcast Engineering Technology
